

El Paso Region Creative Cities Leadership Project

Alumni of El Paso Region Creative Cities Leadership project is an initiative of the City of El Paso Museums and Cultural Affairs Department (MCAD) in partnership with the Department of Economic Development, local businesses, organizations and individuals

Graduate 2012 and Alumni of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Citizenship Academy

Founding member of the Crime Victims' Rights Council of El Paso and served on the leadership Team

Chaired the 79924 Northeast youth at risk coalition.

Chair Project Change El Paso

A member of Northeast Coalition Led by Judge Brian Haggerty, a core group of community leaders to improved education in the northeast.

Provide services for Lower Dyer Neighborhood Revitalization Strategy Community & Human Development

Provided training for the National Council of Churches (a national rebuilding project to assist in the rebuilding of burned churches.

The Wiesenthal Center led an international training and symposium with the cooperation with the justice department and President Clinton was selected a an attendee.

Train with Southern Poverty Law Center the Center an internationally known for its tolerance education programs.

Train and a current partner with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

Presenter at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice ,New York, New York

Presenter at the World press Club

El Paso Community College 2012 Diamond women Leaders

Delta Sigma Theta women of the year200 9 for Community service

Delta Sigma Theta women of the year200 9 for Religious Community service

Project Change was created by the Levi Strauss Foundation (LSF) to address racial prejudice and institutional racism. Received recognition for work along with others at the White house with president William Clinton

Provided and train Mayor and council of Jasper, Texas

Work on other classified projects.

